

Witnesses Relate Reasons for No Delinquency

The forthcoming Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's witnesses at George Washington High School Auditorium, 108th St. and Denker Ave., Los Angeles, has given rise to the question among members of why there is no delinquency among these Christians.

Children Harmonize For Yule Pageant

Seaside Community Church school will present its annual Christmas program Sunday at 6 p.m.

The pageant, "The Hanging of the Greens," will consist of three main parts—decking of the altar by costumed children, placing of the figures in the crèche, and lighting ceremony.

Kindergarten class will sing "Away in a Manger." Primary class will sing "The Friendly Beasts," and the two junior classes will sing "We Three Kings."

Accompanists will be Mmes. John Blair, organist, and Ray Burt, pianist. Readers will be Larry Tuttle and Robert Martin.

Jack Martin and Ronald Lang are candle lighters, John Tuttle and Jeff Binford will serve as ushers.

Rev. William K. Schatz will continue his series Sunday of Advent sermons with "The Zoo," at the 10 a.m. worship service.

This sermon will deal with the lion and the lamb lying down together.

Seaside Community Church is located at 230th and Ocean Ave. in Torrance.

Special notice of Universal Bible Sunday will be made with a display of Bible in the Narthex, with Bibles of different languages and versions represented.

Jones Discusses View Toward Bible

Dr. R. Murray Jones Sunday will preach on "A Mature View of the Bible," at First Presbyterian Church of Gardena.

Each summer is spent in the ministry devoting one hundred hours a month in the door to door and home Bible study work.

Since 1950 they have attended all large conventions of Jehovah's witnesses and are preparing to attend the coming assembly at Washington High.

Louis Battle Jr., also in his teens, said his summers are spent in the full-time ministry.

He is active in the local congregation, an enrolled in the Ministry School, and is the conductor of an advanced Bible class each week.

The Circuit Assembly Dec. 15 to 17 is open to the public. Principal speaker will be Theodore Jaracz.

His subject is "Uniting Men in a Split-up World." He will speak Dec. 17 at 3 p.m.

Narbonne Baptist Church Begins School Building

Construction of the educational building of Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita began this week.

Demolition work began as the site was cleared for erection of the new building. The new unit will be 42 feet wide and 110 feet long.

There will also be an eight foot breezeway on the west side of the two story unit. There will be space for 11 departments in the Sunday school, a library and offices.

The contract for construction of the building was awarded to Carter-Mack Builders of Harbor City. The frame and stucco building will be built to school specifications.
